

Project Description

Becher Hoppe was contracted by the Marathon County Highway Department to provide design engineering services for the deck replacement and structure approach reconstruction of the bridge over Bull Junior Creek. CTH X is a major collector used to move goods and services that support local agriculture, business, industry, recreation, and residents in the surrounding communities of Marathon County.

Project Features

- Bridge deck reconstruction
- Structure approach reconstruction
- Midwest guardrail system and energy absorbing terminals
- Pre-cast, pre-stressed, and post-tensioned box girder deck design
- Type W steel railing

Firm's Involvement

- Construction plans
- Specifications
- Cost estimate